

Answer to Activity 3-10:

PETITION
TO THE HOUSE OF COMMONS
IN PARLIAMENT ASSEMBLED

We the undersigned, citizens of Canada,
draw the attention of the House to the following:

THAT children eight years of age are old enough to know the difference between legal and criminal acts, and that some children deliberately choose to commit criminal acts knowing full well that they are too young to be charged under the Young Offenders Act;

THEREFORE, your petitioners respectfully request that the Parliament of Canada revise the Young Offenders Act so that it applies to children who have reached eight years of age.
